

On With the Show
Activity Three: Drama

Elm Street School Drama Club needs your help! Design a poster for the upcoming musical and your work may be on the cover of all of the programs and posters.

The play is called The Highlight Zone . It is a musical about a character named Jess who is to begin her first day at a new school. Jess is especially dreading having to take Music Appreciation class. The fears about the unknown leads this unsuspecting student into The Highlight Zone.

Here, during a nocturnal voyage, Jess finds herself the laughing stock in school for wearing pajamas. In Music Appreciation class, Jess learns that an assignment is due the first day! Suddenly, Jess is playing a bizarre game of baseball, dancing the minuet with a group of chefs, and finally, appearing before a panel of instructors (including Handel) who will determine her future as a music student.

During the course of these and other strange events, Jess acquires a greater appreciation for the classical music that is timeless...all the result of a brief visit to The Highlight Zone.

Your job is to create a poster for the musical. Remember all the necessary information.
