

WORLD WAR I

Activity # 3 “Maps & Photographs” (Responding critically to media from Canadian Encyclopedia 2000 CD-ROM)

1. Insert into the CD-ROM drive of the computer, disk #2 (Media) for the Canadian Encyclopedia 2000.

Select the tab, “gallery.” When prompted, type in the media name, “World War I, Map.” Note! You may click on the arrow (in the box in the corner above the map) to enlarge this item to full screen size, making it much easier to view.

2. (a) What countries are included in this map of World War I ?

(b) Name three large rivers shown in this map.

1. _____ 2. _____
3. _____

(c) What body of water separates the United Kingdom from France?

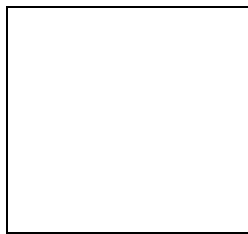

3. Examine the legend for this map. What does the term, “front line” mean? Define this in your own words.

4. Instead of drawing three different maps, the creator of this particular media (the map) decided to include three different “front lines,” each one showing the situation at a different point in time. Complete the following chart, based on the information you find in the legend and in the map itself.

The Changing Front Line:

LINE COLOUR:	DATE:

5. (a) Draw and colour the symbol used for major battles involving Canadians.

- (b) How many battles are included in this map?

- (c) List the locations where five of these battles took place.

6. Now click on the “Related Articles” below the map. Click on the article about Vimy Ridge. There are three photographs available for viewing (Note the “camera” icon!) Click on these photographs, view each of them and read the captions. Use the “Vimy Ridge” link to return to the main article. Now, read the entire article (2 paragraphs) by R.H. Ray. Then you should also view the other media available for the main article, “World War I” as these include film clips in addition to the map and photographs! You should make these full screen size for maximum viewing.

7. In the space below, evaluate the encyclopedia editors’ choice of media to accompany the Canadian Encyclopedia 2000 articles (“World War I” and “Vimy Ridge”) you just read and viewed. Discuss these within your group and feel free to express your opinion about the map, photographs and film clips. Use complete (and interesting) sentences and be sure to consider whether each of these media selections is:

- ! appropriate
- ! useful
- ! of good visual quality (in terms of the way they appear in this encyclopedia)

Be sure to include any changes YOU would make if YOU were an editor contributing to Canadian Encyclopedia 2000 !

(a) The map is: _____

(b) The photographs and film clips are: _____
