

Colonel Gray News Column

(for publication on April 5/6)

The Provincial Professional Development Day will be held on Friday, April 9th.

Report cards will be sent home on April 15th.

Mid semester results of grade 12 students with averages of 80% or higher will automatically be sent out to all the universities and colleges that the students have requested.

Colonel Gray registration for present students will be held April 15th - 20th

Safe Grad is a free night of activities for graduates following graduation and in order to put this event on we need community support. Students from the safe grad committee will be approaching businesses asking for help. If you can help with a donation of money or merchandise we would be very grateful.

Gerry Ruttan Tribute concert will be held on Tuesday, April 20 at Colonel Gray at 7pm. Featured performances will be from the PEI Regiment Band, Strathgartney Orchestra, Englewood School Band and Colonel Gray 11&12 Concert band, all groups which were originally developed by Mr. Rutten.

Regretfully we say good by to Donna Dawkins, who has been a valued member of our Student Services team for the past 4 months. We wish her well in her future endeavors. Welcome to Jennifer Postma who will be joining our staff until the end of June.

The Colonel Gray carpentry classes will be building storage sheds this spring. Anyone interested in purchasing a shed can call Rob Deacon at 368-6860.

Our annual sales campaign for the 2009-2010 Yearbook will take place from Monday, April 12 to Friday April 16. In order to secure a yearbook, students have to pre-order a copy at the cost of $25. Students are asked to bring money to their block B teacher during that week.

The 2008-2009 Yearbooks are due to arrive shortly from the printer. An announcement will be placed in this column regarding arrival and distribution arrangements. Thank you for your patience

The final exam period for the second semester is June 10-20, 2010. It is Colonel Gray policy that exams are to be written on the day they are scheduled. Only in extenuating circumstances such as illness (with medical note) or bereavement are exams re-scheduled.