

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Thursday, Sept. 16, 2010 - Day 2

Teachers are dressed up in a crazy "fashion" yesterday in order to bring awareness to a fund raiser they launched this week in support of our Bhutanese students and their families who were recently affected by a serious car accident. Tomorrow students will have an opportunity to do the same or AT THE VERY LEAST wear CG colours and make a donation to the "BURGUNDY FOR BHUTAN" fund raiser that will happen in BLK A when representatives from Student Council will circulate to each class to collect your donations. Let's help out and make a difference!

Cafeteria Menu:

- Thurs... Chili with bread stick,sm milk or juice...$4.50
- Fri..... Fish and chips with coleslaw,tartar sauce,sm milk or juice...$4.95

Students are reminded that they are NOT to be dropped off or picked up in the teacher's parking lot. The student parking lot has a specific large lane designated for parents and students. The bus lane in the front of the school is also off limits.

Student Council notes:

- Colonel Gray clothing order starts today in the cafeteria at lunch - make sure to come see our new designs
- First Gray Day on Friday - "Burgandy for Bhutan" Bring donations.
- First Block A Challenge tomorrow - Tug of War at lunch in the gym. 5 guys and 5 girls per team. Who will take the title from Mr. Cutcliffe this year?????

Meetings:

- Colonel Gray Free the Children will be having its first meeting today at noon in Ms. Bradley's Room.
- Student interested in volunteering to help organize the Terry Fox Run are asked to attend a meeting today at 12:00 in Student Services
- The Political Studies Club will meet for the first time this year on Friday, at 11:50 in Room 208. This club is for students interested in political activities, debating, and having a good argument about parties and politicians. You do not have to be taking a Political Studies course in order to attend. The club is open to everyone; bring along your lunch and join the conversation. This year, students will take part in the PEI Model Parliament, the Model U.N. at St Thomas University, and the National Student Commonwealth Forum in Ottawa.

Forum for Young Canadians:

The Forum for Young Canadians is a week-long immersion in how Canada is governed, held on Parliament Hill in Ottawa. High school students from across Canada attend this event to meet Members of Parliament, Senators, senior civil servants and representatives of NGOs and the media, to listen to presentations, ask questions, and explore Ottawa. The first Forum session is in late November; three more are planned for the spring in February and March. There is a registration fee; airfare, hotel accommodation and most meals are provided. Some financial assistance is available. Information about the Forum can be obtained at www.forum.ca or see Mr Holton in Room 208 for information and application forms.

Student Services notes:

- application information for the Loran Awards is now available with a deadline to Student Services by Tues., Oct. 12th
