

Great Plant Escape: Case 3

All About Seeds

What lives inside every seed? _____.

Name some of the forces that move seeds to different places.

_____, _____,
_____, _____.

Parts of a Seed

The outer covering of the seed is the _____. It protects the _____.

The _____ is a temporary food supply that is packed around the _____ in the form of leaves called _____.

Germination

Seeds remain _____ or inactive until everything is right for _____.

These 3 things need to be right before germination begins.

_____, _____, _____.

When a seed germinates or breaks open a _____ or root emerges followed by a shoot or _____.

Mystery