

Sources of News Stories on Global Issues

Source	Description	Location
The Globalist	Publishes an online daily news magazine which presents a new article on a compelling global story each day.	http://www.theglobalist.com/
BBC News	Presents an excellent variety of news stories focused on regions of the world.	http://news.bbc.co.uk/
OneWorld.net	Strives to be "the premiere global hub for groups and individuals who care about international issues—a town hall for today's interconnected world."	http://us.oneworld.net/
Worldview Magazine	Published by the National Peace Corps Association "to bring the events and people of the less-developed places in this world to U.S. readers." (Includes lesson plans for high school students and older).	http://www.worldviewmagazine.com/
Worldpress.org	Presents an amazing directory of the world's newspapers and magazines by country, as well as a headline service of the top global stories of the day.	http://worldpress.org/wprw.htm
The Christian Science Monitor	Offers an array of articles easily accessed by scanning by region or by global topic. Their articles can be read by most secondary students.	http://www.csmonitor.com/world/index.html
China Daily	Provides a well-organized and interesting news portal on China, the U.S., and the world.	http://www.chinadaily.com.cn/
globalinfo.org	Offers a news source on developing countries, searchable by region or by global issue.	http://www.globalinfo.org/
Reuters	Provides a full world news service, plus, at the bottom of the home page, one can link to their international editions for 18 world regions.	http://www.reuters.com/
CNN.com	Provides global coverage, focus areas on six world regions, plus its joint creations with TIME.	http://www.cnn.com/WORLD/

Compiled by Michael Roessler, 3.6.07.