

COYOTE

Habitat: Den is a burrow in soil often found at the base of a hollow tree or in a hole between rocks.

Diet: Rabbits, hares, small rodents, insects, blueberries and other wild fruits.

Behavior: Hunts small prey animals singly: hunts large prey and defends large carcasses in groups.

Facts: Deaths of coyotes older than five months are caused by people.

