

The Learning Disabilities Association of Prince
Edward Island is launching a

NEW SERVICE FOR FAMILIES

Parent Support Group

Do you have a child with a learning disability and/or AD/HD? Do you feel you need an open, supportive, educational setting to share your experiences? If so, please call to register at no cost for our Fall 2007 start-up!

What we'll offer:

- Discussions - a chance to share your own experiences
- Professional direction on issues of peer interaction, school communications and family dynamics
- Mini-workshops on common parental struggles
- Books, websites, handouts and other resources that can help
- Guest speakers

The Parent Support Group will meet Monday, October 29th, 6:30pm at 40 Enman Cres. (Royalty Center), Room 125, Charlottetown

Topic: From Initial Assessment to Treatment - Coping with LD and ADHD at home.

Guest speaker: Psychologist Dr. Jason Doiron.

ldapei

Learning Disabilities Association of PEI

Call 894-5032 to register or view our website at www.ldapei.ca for more information.