I worked independently on this booklet in the Library Resource Centre.

I started this booklet on [date].

This booklet is about [person] who is a [occupation] and [another occupation].

If I could meet Phoebe Gilman, I would ask her 2 questions.

1. [question]
2. [another question]
I know some important facts/information about Phoebe Gilman. _________________

This is a portrait of Phoebe Gilman. _________________

I read_____________ Phoebe Gilman books.

1. Title: ____________________________________________

2. Title: ____________________________________________

3. Title: ____________________________________________

What is the title of the book Phoebe Gilman did not write, but she did illustrate? ______
Who is the author?

________________________________

My favorite Phoebe Gilman book is_______

________________________________

The publisher is

________________________________

The copyright date is

______________________.
The spine label looks like

The main character is ________________.

The other characters are ________________
______________.

My favorite character is ________________.

In your favorite book, what is the part that you like best? Why is this your favorite part?
______________________________
___
On the next page illustrate the part that you like best. When you are finished drawing your picture, design a beautiful border around the page like Phoebe Gilman does with some of her books. Your border should match your picture.
I _______________ learning about this author because ________________________________

_________________________________

If I could meet Phoebe Gilman I would tell her something about her books, or her writing that I like.

_________________________________

_________________________________

_________________________________

_________________________________

I finished this booklet on ____________________.

I made ______________ visits to the Library.

I _______________ working in the Library because
_________________________________
_________________________________
___

I will share this booklet with
_____________
_________________________________
___