OPERATION AGRO
EVALUATION FOR TEACHERS

We would really appreciate your feedback on this unit. Any suggestions or comments that you have can help us to make future resources easier for you to use.

Completed forms can be sent to: Agriculture Education Coordinator, PEI Agricultural Human Resources Development Council, 420 University Ave., Charlottetown, PEI C1A 7Z5
Fax: 902-892-1091.

Please rate the following on the scale of 1 to 5 (1 being poor, 5 being excellent)

1. This unit was easy to follow and use. _______
   Comments: _____________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

2. The background information was useful.______
   Comments: _____________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

3. Students found the unit interesting and challenging._______
   Comments: _____________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

4. Operation Agro met curriculum objectives.______
   Comments: _____________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

5. How, if at all, could this unit be improved? ______________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

6. I would be interested in receiving Agriculture Education resources in future.
   Yes   No
   ______________________________________________________________________
   ______________________________________________________________________

   If yes, please fill in the information requested below

   Name ___________________________   School __________________________   Grade ______