Electric Library is an online database of many articles from newspapers, magazines, books, tv and radio shows etc. It is an excellent source of online information for you to use.
Type in the following and hit SEARCH:
        “locks for love” (include quotation marks)
Scroll down to find the article “Girls make the cut for a good cause”. Click on it.
Where is this article taken from?
_____________________________________________________________________
What date was it published?
_____________________________________________________________________
Who is the author?
_____________________________________________________________________
Read the article to answer the following:
What did the 6 year old triplets donate? ______________________________________
Why?_________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
How many ponytails does “Locks for Love” receive each week?
_____________________________________________________________________
Click back to the search page and clear it for the next group.
Now, look through the Eastern Graphic (November 15, 2000) to find a picture of a girl having her hair cut for the same reason.
Who is donating her hair? (She has a sister in Grade 12)
_____________________________________________________________________
How long was her ponytail? ________________________________________________
Do you think this is a good cause? Explain.
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________
_____________________________________________________________________