Station # 2
Non-Fiction Book Station
The Hayes Book of Mysteries

1. Use the MicroCat computer to find this book in the library. What is the call number of the book? ____________________________

2. Who is the author of the book? ____________________________

3. In what year was the book published? ____________________________

4. This book contains 22 mysteries. Choose one mystery that interests you and read it.

5. Find another source of information on this topic. You can use CD-Rom, books, encyclopedias, magazines, Internet etc. Read the information presented to you in the source you found.

6. Write a brief summary of the mystery using information from both sources. Follow the steps of the Information Process and make sure to put the information in your own words.

Mystery: ____________________________

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________

7. List both The Hayes Book of Mysteries, as well as the other source you found for information on your topic in proper bibliographic form.

________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________
________________________________________________________________________